TESTIMONIALS

DUROFLEX

IME continues to be a valuable platform for discovering new materials and vendors from across the globe. With consistent participation over the years, it has enabled strong exposure to partners showcasing what they have, while also supporting the introduction of new and innovative products into the industry. As the market continues to expand and do well, such platforms remain important for driving innovation and growth.

Matthew George,
Duroflex Ltd.

Livpure smart

The expo serves as a good platform to explore innovations coming into the mattress industry, while also providing an opportunity to reconnect with existing suppliers. The ability to see what is the latest happening in the industry, along with evaluating new designs and innovations for integration into existing product lines, makes it a valuable and practical experience for brands.

Nitin Malhotra,
Livpure Smart

JACQUARD
